Nicola, 43, a mum from Co Down, is living with FATWO (female adnexal tumour of probable Wolffian origin), a cancer so rare that only around 150 cases have ever been recorded worldwide. There is no proven treatment and no clinical trials, because there have never been enough patients to study. Your sponsorship helps get Nicola's case in front of the specialists who know FATWO best, and supports Nicola and her family.

Paying in the money

1. Collect your sponsorship once you've finished your challenge.
2. Pay the total into Nicola's Journey on GoFundMe: gofund.me/e5cc123a5, or scan the code.
3. Mention your challenge in the donation message, so we can say thank you.

Nicola's Journey is a personal fundraiser, not a registered charity, so Gift Aid can't be claimed.
